Appreciation

With hearts full of gratitude, we, the family of our beloved departed, sincerely appreciate everyone who stood by us during this difficult period.

We are deeply grateful to our family members, friends, relatives, neighbours, colleagues, church members, well-wishers, and everyone who contributed in one way or another towards the success of the burial ceremony.

Your prayers, words of comfort, presence, kindness, and unwavering support gave us strength and comfort when we needed them most.

Although words cannot fully express how grateful we are, please know that every act of love and kindness will forever remain in our hearts.

May Almighty God bless you abundantly, replenish all that you have given, and grant you peace, good health, and long life.

1. RECEIVING OF THE BODY

The ministers shall meet the body at the entrance of the church.

PRIEST: In the name of God the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.
PEOPLE: Amen.

The congregation will stand

PRIEST: With faith in jesus christ, we receive the body of our beloved one, Late Jide Aiyegboka Ojo for burial.

Let us pray with confidence in God, the Giver of Life, that He may raise her unto perfection in the company of saints.

(Perfect silence after which the priest says)

PREIST: Deliver your servant, Late Wesley Jide Aiyegboka Ojo sovereign Lord from all evils and set her free from every bond that she may rest with all saints in eternal habitation, where with the Father and the Holy Spirit live and reign, one God forever and ever.
PEOPLE: Amen
PRIEST: Rest eternal, grant unto her O Lord.
PEOPLE: And let perpetual light shine upon her,
PRIEST: I have set the Lord always before me, for He is at my right hand, therefore I shall not be moved.
PEOPLE: Wherefore my heart was glad, and my glory rejoices. My flesh also shall rest in hope.
PRIEST: You will not leave my soul in hell; neither shall you suffer your holy one to see corruption.
PEOPLE: You shall show me the path of life, in your presence is the fullness of joy and at your right hand there are pleasure for evermore.
PRIEST: Rest eternal grant unto her, O Lord.
PEOPLE: And let perpetual light shine upon her.

2. SENTENCES

Jesus said, I am the resurrection and the life, he that believes in me, though he may die yet shall he live and whosoever lives and believes in me shall never die.
John 11:25-26

Let not your hearts be troubled, you believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house there are many mansions. If it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. John 14:1-2

For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord.
Therefore, whether we live or die, we are the Lord. Romans 14:8

For I know that my redeemer lives, and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: and after my skin is destroyed, this I know, that in my flesh shall I see God, whom I shall see for myself, and my eyes shall behold, and not another.
Job 19:25-27

Neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers nor heights, nor depth, nor anything else in creation will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.
Romans 8:38-39

For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out; the Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord. 1 Timothy 6:7, Job, 11:21

3. HYMNS ORIN

- JESUS LIVES

1. Jesus lives! Thy terrors now
C an, o death, no more appall us,
Jesus lives! By this we know
Thou, o grave, can not enthrall us Hallelujah!

2. Jesus lives! Henceforth is death
But the gate of life immortal;
This shall calm our trembling breath
When we pass its gloomy portal.
Hallelujah!

3. Jesus lives! for us He died;
Then alone to Jesus living
Pure in heart may we abide,
Glory to our savior giving
Hallelujah!

4. Jesus lives! Our hearts know well
Naught from us His love shall sever,
Life, nor death, nor powers of hell,
Tear us from His keeping ever
Hallelujah!

5. Jesus lives! To Him the Throne.
Over all the world is given:
We, in spirit with Him ONE,
Rest and reign with Him in heaven,
Halelujah. Amen

4. PSALM 90

1. Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations.
2. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, Thou art God.
3. Thou turnest man to destruction; and Sayest, Return, ye children of men.
4. For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night.
5. Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep: in the morning they are like grass which groweth up.
6. In the morning it foursheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, withereth.
7. For we are consumed by thine anget, and by thy wrath are we troubled.
8. Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thycountenance,
9. For alley days are passed away in thy wrath: welspend our years as a tale that is told.
10. The days of pur years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.
11. Who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath.
12. So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.
13. Retum, O LORD, how long? and let it repent thee concerning thy servants
14. O satisfy us early with thy mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
15. Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil.
16. Let thy work appear unto thy servants, l and thy glory unto their children.
17. And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us: and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

5. Lessons : 1 THESSA. 4:13-18

13. But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.

14. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

15. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

16. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the arch angel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

17. Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

18. Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

7. Hymn: JERUSALEM ON HIGH

1. Jerusalem on Ratt
My song and aty is
My ame whene'er 1 die
The center of my bliss.
O happy place!
When shall I be,
My God, with Thee.
To see Thy face!

2. Thy walls are made of pearls,
My heavenly aty bright
The gates are dazzling white,
Thy streets are paved with gold
O happy place! etc.

3. The sun does not light there
Neither is there the moon,
All these are not needed
For Jesus is the light
O happy place! Etc.

4. There dwells my Lord, my King,
Judged here until to live;
There angels to Him sing,
And lowly homage give.

5. The patriarchs of old
There from their travels cease;
The prophets there behold
Their long'd-for Prince of peace.
O happy place! etc.

6. The Lamb's apostles there
I might with joy behold;
The harpers I might hear
Harping on harps of gold.
O happy place etc. Amen.

1. We speak of the realms of the Blest,
Of that country so bright and so fair
And oft are its glories confessed;
But what must it be to be to be there?

2. We speak of its pathways of gold,
Of its walls deeked with Jewels most rare
Its wonders and pleasures untold
But what must it be to be there?

3. We speak of its freedom from sin,
From sorrow, temptation, and care,
From trials without and within?
But what must it be to be there?

4. We speak of its anthems of praise,
With which we can never compare,
The sweetest on earth we can raise;
But what must it be to be there?

5. We speak of its service of love,
Of the robes which the glorified wear,
The Church of the First-born above;
But what must it be to be there?

6. Do Thou, Lord, midst pleasure of woe,
Stil for Heavin our spirits prepare,
And shortly we also shall know
And Tee what it is to be there, Amen.

SLEEP ON BELOVED

1. Sleep on, beloved, sleep and take thy rest;
Lay down thy head upon thy Saviour's breast:
We love thee well; but Jesus loves thee best.
Good-night! Good-nightl Goodnight!

2. Calm is thy slumber as an infant's sleep;
But thou shalt wake no more to toil and weep:
Thine is a perfect rest, secure and deep
Good-night! Good-night! Good-night

3. Until the shadows from this earth are cast
Until He gathers in His sheaves at last;
Until the twilight gloom is over-past.
Good-night! Good-night! Good- night!

4. Until the Lord's new glory floods the skies,
Until the loved in Jesus shall arise,
And He shall come, but not in lowly guise.
Good-night! Good-night! Good- night!

5. Until made beautiful by Love Divine,
Thou in the likeness of thy Lord shalt shine,
And He shall bring that golden crown of thine.
Good-night! Good-night! Good-night!

6. Only "good-night," beloved-not "farewell!"
A little while, and all His saints shall dwell
In hallowed union, indivisible.
Good-nighti Good-night! Good-night!

7. Until we meet again before His throne,
Clothed in the spotless robe He gives His own,
Unitl we know even as we know
Goo-night! Good-night Good-night Amen.

IN CHRIST ALONE

1. In Christ alongry hape is found,
He is my light, my strengmysor;
This copserstone, this solid Ground,
Fim through the fiercest drought and storm.
What heights of love, what depths of peace,
When fears are stilled, when strivings cease
My Comfortes, my All in All,
Here in the love of Christ I stand.

2. In Christ alone, who took on flesh,
Fullness of God in helpless babe.
This gift of love and righteousness,
Scorned by the ones He came to save:
Till on that cross as Jesus died,
The wrath of God was satisfied
For every sin on Him was laid;
Here in the death of Christ I live.

3. There in the ground His body lay,
Light of the world by darkness slain
Then bursting forth in glorious day
Up from the grave He rose again!
And as He stands in victory
Sin's curse has lost its grip on me,
For I am His and He is mine
Bought with the precious blood of Christ.

4. No guilt in life, no fear in death,
This is the power of Christ in me;
From life's first cry to final breath,
Jesus commands my destiny.
No power of hell, no scheme of man,
Can ever pluck me from His hand:
Till He returns or calls me home,
Here in the power of Christ I'll stand

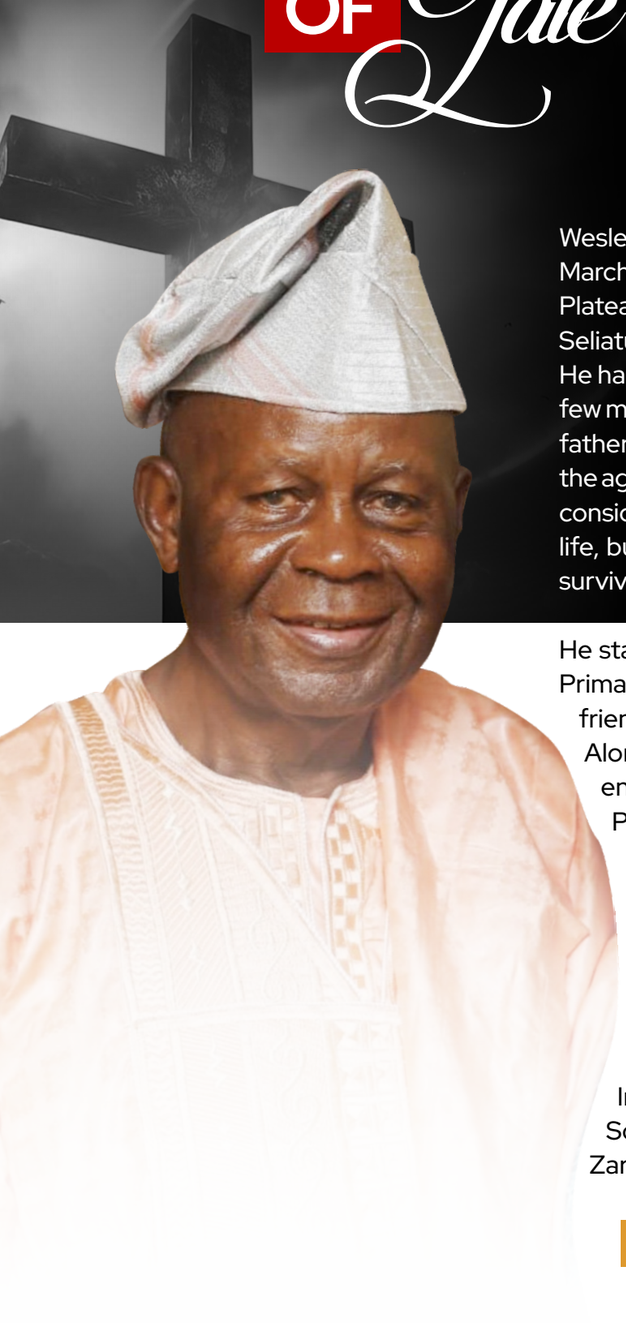
BIOGRAPHY OF Late WESLEY OLAJIDE OJO AIYEGBOKA



Wesley Olajide Ojo Aiyegboka was born on the 4th of March 1943 in Bukuru, a sleepy town 5km south of Jos, Plateau State, to the late Michael Ojo Ihinmodu and Seliatu Daniyan.

He had an uncertain start in life as he lost his mother, a few months after his birth. As a boy, he was raised by his father and paternal grandmother until he lost them at the age of 17 years old. It is fair to say that Olajide faced considerable challenges from the very beginning of his life, but those early experiences taught him resilience, survival and, above all, how to face adversity head-on.

He started his primary education at St Paul's Anglican Primary School, Iyara, in 1953 where he formed friendships that would last a lifetime.

Along with some of these friends, he studied hard enough to pass the entrance examination to Provincial Secondary School, Okene, in 1959.

In addition to pursuing his academic qualifications, he was a keen hockey player at Provincial Secondary School Okene.

His love for the game of Hockey led him to playing against schools from different provinces; an experience he cherished and was proud of.

In 1963, he finished from Provincial Secondary School in Okene and proceeded to Barewa College Zaria for his Higher School Certificate (HSC).

At Barewa college, he completed his Higher School Certificate in 1965 with good grades and proceeded to study for a degree in Economics at Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria, doing life the only way he knows best – very large!

Upon completion of a Bachelor of Science in Economics in 1969, Olajide began his career with the Ministry of Economic Development in Ilorin, Kwara State. On 25th of April 1972, he married his Wife, Helen Abidemi Ojo Aiyegboka of blessed memory.

In his pursuit of further education, Olajide travelled to the United States of America for postgraduate study, where he earned a Masters degree in International Economics at Vanderbilt University, Tennessee, graduating in 1976 as a member of the 1975/1976 cohort. Thereafter, he returned to Nigeria and resumed work with the Ministry of Economic Planning in Ilorin, Kwara State. In 1981, he joined the Nigerian Bank for Commerce and Industry (NBCI), now the Bank of Industry, in Bauchi State and was subsequently transferred to the bank's head office in Lagos in 1985, where he rose through the ranks to become an Assistant General Manager. He left the Bank in 1991, went into independent contracting and, for some time, managed a frozen food enterprise in Ilorin alongside his wife. Throughout his working life and beyond, his greatest investment was not in business but in people.

He took pride in helping others build better lives for themselves and their families. He enabled payment of school fees, helped young people secure admission into higher institutions and afforded accommodation for friends and families who needed a place to stay while pursuing their education. People benefited from his generosity, done without fanfare. He simply saw opportunities to help and did what he could to support. He was unwavering in his commitment to honesty, regardless of the situation. Fully aware that his candour could sometimes rub people the wrong way, he would rather face the consequences of being truthful than compromise his principles and thought process.

Olajide was a larger-than-life character. He was an orphan who navigated life without the benefit of parental guidance yet, managed to overcome the challenges before him and make a positive and lasting impact in the lives of many people. He knew the true meaning of giving and gave to everyone he thought needed assistance.

He came to love the Lord and became a devoted Christian. His love for Iyara was second to none; Iyara was home in a way that no other place could be, and he always expressed the wish to spend his final days there. True to form, he had his way - as he so often did in life. He returned home, and when God called, he answered.

He lived a full and remarkable life, overcame adversity, built enduring friendships, raised a family, pursued education, worked hard, fearless with his convictions, rallied around others and left an indelible mark in the lives of many.

He will be deeply missed, fondly remembered and forever loved by his people.

TRIBUTES

TRIBUTE TO MY IRREPLACEABLE DAD

Daddy, honestly, it still feels so unreal that you have departed this earthly realm to be with your maker. It is difficult to find the right words to express the depth of this pain, especially when I am yet to recover from the loss of mummy, who also went to glory. My heart aches deeply, but I find comfort in knowing that you are now resting in the presence of our heavenly father. Daddy, you were truly the loving, caring and protective father anyone could ever wish for. You provided for your family and ensured that we never lacked the necessities of life. You taught us the values of honesty, contentment, and hardwork, lessons that will remain with us for the rest of our lives. Your sacrifices, guidance and love have left an indelible mark on our hearts. Though no one is perfect, I take comfort in knowing that you made peace with your maker, even on your sick bed. What a blessing to know that you reconciled with God before taking your final bow on this earthly stage! Now, you have reunited with your darling wife, our beloved mother, Helen Abidemi Ojo. What a glorious reunion that must be! your beloved wife, until that glorious day when we shall meet again, never to part anymore.
Daddy, thank God this is not a final goodbye. It is only to see you later, my irreplaceable father, my beloved daddy, until we meet again, rest on in the lord's eternal embrace. You will forever be loved, cherished and remembered.

Heaven has gained an angel, and the devil has been put to shame! Hallelujah!!! You have taken your place among the great cloud of witnesses, and your legacy of love, sacrifice, and godly values will continue to live on through us.

Daddy, though your departure has left an empty void that will be difficult to fill, we take solace in the fact that you came, you lived, you fought the good fight and you conquered. Your earthly journey may have ended, but your impact on our lives will never fade. Your memories will forever remain precious treasures in our hearts. Continue to rest peacefully in the bosom of our heavenly father, reunited with your beloved wife, until that glorious day when we shall meet again, never to part anymore.

Daddy, thank God this is not a final goodbye. It is only to see you later, my irreplaceable father, my beloved daddy, until we meet again, rest on in the lord's eternal embrace. You will forever be loved, cherished and remembered.

BIMBO ASHAOLU

Baba,

You were truly one of a kind. As a father, you pushed us to be the best versions of ourselves, no matter how uncomfortable the challenge.

This, of course, you did for everyone—be it your subject or not.
You were uncompromising in your belief that hard work and dedication lead to success—a belief forged in your own childhood, rising above limited resources to make something remarkable of your life.

As a friend, you were the life and soul of every room. You were the person everyone wanted to be around, and you carried that warmth with effortless grace.

As a professional, you worked with unwavering diligence and unshakeable integrity – you never compromised your honesty. You lived life to the fullest, finding true joy in the path you walked.

We will deeply miss everything about you.

Continue to rest in the bosom of the Lord. Bye, Dad..

BAYO

Tribute to My Beloved Husband

Daddy Jide Wesley Ojo Aiyegboka,
When we heard about your sudden departure in this sinful world, that you have gone to rest at the bosom of your Maker, it was a rude shock to me.

The only consolation that we have is that our God is unquestionable, and that you are resting with our Lord Jesus Christ.

We thank God that you lived a fulfilled life.

FOREVER IN OUR Heart

TRIBUTE TO MY ICONIC BROTHER, MR. WESLEY JIDE OJO AIYEGBOKA

With a heavy heart, but in total submission to the will of Almighty God, I write this tribute to my iconic and beloved brother. You were more than a brother to me; you were a father, a friend, a pillar of strength, and a source of wisdom and encouragement.

Your love for the family, your kind heart, and your wise words are treasures that will forever remain in our hearts.

Though you departed this world on 23rd September 2026, the memories you left behind will never fade.
Your passing has created a vacuum that no one can ever fill, and words cannot fully express the pain of losing someone so special and dear to my heart.

My dear brother, your life was a blessing to our family, and your memory will continue to live on in our hearts.

Though we mourn your departure, we take comfort in the beautiful memories we shared and submit humbly to the will of Almighty God.

Rest peacefully, my beloved brother, until we meet again, never to part anymore.

Adieu, my iconic brother. You will forever be loved, cherished, and remembered.

Your loving sister.

MRS. OLUYEMI DADA ELIZABETH

TRIBUTE TO MY DEAR BROTHER, PA WESLEY OLAJIDE OJO AIYEGBOKA

Death, where is thy sting 1 Cor 15:55. I write this tribute with a heavy heart that you have gone to be with the Lord. I never saw death coming on the day you were wheeled to the theatre for surgery.

My main concern was how you will walk with your legs again.

Daddy, to say we will miss you in my home is an understatement, because of the very beautiful moments we shared.
We will miss those reminiscences on your past life; stories about your college life in Okene and Zaria.

I can recollect that you took me in as a very small girl to stay with you immediately you joined the Kwara State civil service, in Ilorin .
You trained and mentored me and all your investments in my life have endured till today.
Daddy, you were a strict, transparent and very disciplined person. You were a complete family man, who prioritized your wife, children above all other pursuits. You valued education so much and ensured that all your biological children and those connected to you were educated.

You were a bridge builder in the family and a Community leader per excellence. Ayanfe community in Iyara will continually remember you for your meaningful contributions during your short stay at home.

We thank God for your service in His vineyard. You were a committed member of the UMCA church in Ilorin and also the Anglican church in Iyara.

You lived a very fulfilled life, and you did not lack those things that made life comfortable for you at your old age.
Daddy, we will have wished you stayed longer, because of the fellowship we shared.
But who are we to query God.
Our consolation is that we shall meet on the resurrection morning where we shall live to part no more.

Adieu, Daddy

MRS. BOLAJI BAIYERE

TRIBUTE TO A BROTHER LIKE A FATHER

Although we are siblings, I always refer to you as my father, why because you stood firmly and supported your siblings in their educational careers.

That is what our father, Pa Michael Ojo, would have done if he had not died early, in 1960. You hated cheating and always ready to fight for whoever is cheated, be it your siblings, relations or friends.

Now that you have gone to the great beyond to join our father, I wish you both eternal rest in peace.

Adieu my brother.

TUNJI OJO

Today, we celebrate the resilient life of our Father, Daddy Wesley Olajide Ojo Aiyegboka.

Daddy, your passing was so sudden and a rude shock to us, but we resign to the will of God and are so thankful for your life, In Loving Memory of My Father-in-Law.

I am grateful for the privilege of knowing you and sharing so many memories with you. Having you stay with us for a couple of months this year was especially precious. Having you with us was a blessing, and your prayers, encouraging words, and support meant more to us than words can express.

You always had a way of reassuring us through your words and prayers, reminding us to hold on to our faith, remain hopeful, and cherish family. I will always remember your hearty laughter and how much you enjoyed watching the news and discussing the latest happenings.

These simple, everyday moments may have seemed small at the time, but they are now precious memories that I will hold close to my heart.
It is hard to accept that you are no longer with us, but I take comfort in knowing that the love, wisdom, and prayers you shared with us will stay with us always. You will be deeply missed, lovingly remembered, and forever cherished.

Rest peacefully, Baba. Your memory will live on in our hearts.
Saratu act, your courage and capacity to weather storms, your charisma with people, your care for your family, your willingness to go the extra mile for others and your unique simplicity and tenacity with life.

We mostly remember your infectious laughter during our conversations and this we will hold with us.

We miss your physical presence, but we are encouraged that you are in a better place...

Rest in the bosom of the Lord, Our Dear Daddy.

JIDE AND BUNMI ASA

Kayode said, "All I want for Christmas is Grandpa."

Where do I even begin? The laughter, the news stations always playing in the background, the little dances here and there, or the consistent one-hour prayers every night...
It still feels like a dream.

I keep thinking about the tears in your eyes, and in the eyes of your grandchildren, when it was time to say goodbye.

We never imagined that would be the last time they would sit on your lap, take pictures with you, dance with you, or simply enjoy being around Grandpa.

In all things, we give thanks. We are grateful for every breath you lived, every testimony you shared, every moment of joy you gave us, and above all, the legacy you left behind.

You left us your amazing children, with a core so strong and hearts so tender. Through them, and through all of us, so much of who you were continues to live on.
By His mercy and grace, we know we will see you again.

Until then, please give our love to Mummy. We are sure you both will be cheering us on until the day we meet again.

Forever loved. Forever missed. Forever in our hearts.
Your official last child.

SARAH ABIOLA-OJO

To a great man, fare thee well. Rest easy, Dad!

ABIOLA OJO

TRIBUTE TO A LOVING AND CARING DADDY
- PA WESLEY OLAJIDE OJO AIYEGBOKA

It is with a heavy heart but with total submission to the will of God that I, your son, (Hon. Kunle Falade), pay this tribute to my beloved Daddy, Pa Wesley Olajide Ojo Aiyegboka.

Daddy, you were not just a father to me, you were a father figure to many. You were a loving and caring father who showed me true love, discipline and the way of the Lord.

As your son and as your driver who was always close to you, I saw first-hand your humility, your kindness, your honesty and your fear of God. You were a man of peace, a man of wisdom, and a man who loved his family beyond measure.

You labored for us, you prayed for us, and you taught us to be content, truthful and hardworking. Your words of advice and your sincere prayers will continue to guide me for the rest of my life.

Your death has created a big vacuum in my life and in the entire Aiyegboka family. I will greatly miss your fatherly love, your calls, your counsel and your smiling face.

But I take solace in the Word of God that you have gone to rest in the bosom of our Lord Jesus Christ, where there is no more pain or sorrow.
Thank you for being the best Daddy in the world. I will forever make you proud and keep your legacy alive.

Rest on, my beloved Daddy, till we meet to part no more. Sun re o, Daddy mi owon!
Your Loving Son,

HON. KUNLE FALADE

Tribute to Daddy

When I married into this family, I didn't just gain a spouse; I was blessed with a second father. Pa. Wesley Olajide Ojo Aiyegboka, welcomed me with open arms from day one. He was a man of quiet strength, immense wisdom, and a generous heart. The incredible family he raised is a testament to the kind of man he was.

He taught us how to love fiercely, work hard, and find joy in the simple things. His laugh will echo in our hearts forever, and the legacy he leaves behind will guide our family for generations to come, rest in power daddy.

TAIWO ASHAOLU

Tribute to my Dear Grandpa
When I heard the news I was overwhelmed with sadness and deep emotion. The bond I had with my grandfather was strong and unbreakable. He was my best friend. We had many fun memories together, for example watching TV, talking, sitting on the balcony (my favorite). He was always a big source of comfort to me especially after the passing of my grandmother, which made us even closer than ever before.

I always loved just being near him, he had this aura that made me comfortable telling him everything.
He loved his children and grandchildren so much I would often see him praying for them with his brown bible in hand, with this unexplainable glow, this angelic glow while he prayed.
He loved sitting me down and telling me stories from his childhood which I was always eager to listen to.
My favorite ones were his farm stories, these stories always made me admire him and see him in a whole different light.

Rest in peace till we meet to part no more. I love you, grandpa, and I'm glad you knew that.

ANGELA ASHAOLU

TRIBUTE TO PA WESLEY OJO OLAJIDE AIYEGBOKA

Death is a necessary end of all mortals. How, when, what of death is not given to us to know.

The Almighty God can call any of us home at any time, and we cannot query Him, because He is sovereign.

Baba has answered his own call, and he is now free from the pains, sicknesses, challenges and problems of this sinful world. I can recollect that I still called to speak with you on the day of your death, not knowing that the phone call will be our last conversation.
My wife and I were actually expecting you in Lokoja, as you did regularly, until she responded to your missed call, and you informed her about the fall in the bathroom and that you were in the hospital in Okene. You were later transferred to Ilorin and she came there to stay with you in the hospital until the final call to glory.
I cherish so much your visits to us, during which you usually go on memory lane to narrate stories of the past, especially your experience as a student both at PSS, Okene, Barewa College, Zaria, and your civil service years amongst others. You were so warm, engaging and very interactive. It was a pleasant thing to have you visit us regularly.

You were a very neat, organized and highly disciplined person. It is difficult to change your mind on an issue that you have conviction of. I just marvel at the time it usually takes you to bath, shave, or even brush your teeth. You were so meticulous and never in a hurry to do all of these.
I know you to be somebody who is always determined to accomplish whatever you set your mind to do. I remember your last visit to us in Lokoja in July, during which you joined us in one of our daily walking exercise.
Indeed, I had to request you at a point to stop the exercise after about ten minutes walk and to which you responded that you were able to do it to the end, and in fact you did.
You loved God so passionately and you served Him faithfully to the end.
You were always prompt in joining us for prayer at the family altar as soon as you heard us singing choruses.
Baba, you have done your part and have bowed out of this sinful world to meet with your God. However, our consolation is that we shall meet on the resurrection morning where we shall live to part no more.

Adieu, Baba.

MR. GABRIEL BAIYERE

TRIBUTE TO MY FRIEND AND CLASSMATE, WESLEY OLAJIDE OJO AIYEGBOKA

Aiyee, I remember we were admitted into provincial secondary school Okene in 1959 on merit.
Our HSC as well as our Degree program me in ABU Zaria between 1966 to 1969 was on merit.
Our employment was also on merit.
We therefore believed that hard work and honesty are virtues which we sincerely pursued.
Jide, continue to sleep well in the bosom of the lord. It is the end of every mortal.

AYO JONATHAN

To a truly extraordinary Man,

Reaching over eighty years of life is a blessing, but the way you have lived those years—and the family you have raised—is a gift to everyone who knows you.

It is hard to find the words to express how deeply your family has impacted our lives as a family. The kindness, love, and support your home has shown to us is beyond anything we could ever measure or repay. You didn't just build a family; you built a sanctuary of grace and generosity that extended to us when we needed it most.
Looking at you today, I see where the heart of family in you comes from. Thank you for your wisdom, your gentle strength, and the incredible legacy of kindness you have created.
May You Continue to Rest in the Arms of GOD in Jesus name Amen.

MR & MRS S. K. ELUKPO

TRIBUTE TO OUR BELOVED FATHER, AND FRIEND, MR WESLEY OLAJIDE OJO AIYEGBOKA

A Life of Faith, Love, and Joyful Fellowship with God's People
Tribute by Revd Meshack Salawu, Chaplain, UMCA Theological Seminary Chapel, Ilorin
With gratitude to God for a life well spent, we pay tribute to our beloved Elder, Father, Baba, Grandfather, and Friend, Late Mr. Wesley Olajide Ojo Aiyegboka. His life testified to genuine Christian faith, love for God, and affection for His people.

Baba Wesley, you were more than a chapel member; you were a father figure, respected elder, grandfather in the faith, and dear friend. Your love for God and commitment to Christian fellowship were evident in the way you lived.
We will never forget your determination to keep coming to the chapel despite advancing age.
Even when your strength declined, you sought ways to remain among God's people. Your example taught us that love for God and the desire to worship Him should remain alive for as long as He grants us breath.
As your chaplain and fellow member of this spiritual family, I am grateful that we shared fellowship with you.
You walked your earthly journey, loved God's people, and left precious memories. Though we can no longer see you in your familiar place, the testimony of your life will continue to speak to us. Dear Father and Friend, we do not mourn without hope. Our confidence rests in Jesus Christ, whom you loved and served. We entrust you to God's mercy, comforted by the Christian hope of resurrection and eternal life.
To the family, we extend our heartfelt condolences. May the Lord comfort and strengthen you, and may the memories of Baba Wesley's faith, cheerfulness, and love for God sustain you. Rest peacefully, our beloved Baba, Father, Elder, Grandfather, and Friend.

TRIBUTE TO OUR BELOVED FATHER, AND FRIEND, MR WESLEY OLAJIDE OJO AIYEGBOKA

A Life of Faith, Love, and Joyful Fellowship with God's People Tribute by Revd Meshack Salawu, Chaplain, UMCA Theological Seminary Chapel, Ilorin With gratitude to God for a life well spent, we pay tribute to our beloved Elder, Father, Baba, Grandfather, and Friend, Late Mr. Wesley Olajide Ojo Aiyegboka. His life testified to genuine Christian faith, love for God, and affection for His people.

Baba Wesley, you were more than a chapel member; you were a father figure, respected elder, grandfather in the faith, and dear friend. Your love for God and commitment to Christian fellowship were evident in the way you lived.
We will never forget your determination to keep coming to the chapel despite advancing age.

Even when your strength declined, you sought ways to remain among God's people. Your example taught us that love for God and the desire to worship Him should remain alive for as long as He grants us breath.
As your chaplain and fellow member of this spiritual family, I am grateful that we shared fellowship with you.

You walked your earthly journey, loved God's people, and left precious memories.
Though we can no longer see you in your familiar place, the testimony of your life will continue to speak to us. Dear Father and Friend, we do not mourn without hope. Our confidence rests in Jesus Christ, whom you loved and served. We entrust you to God's mercy, comforted by the Christian hope of resurrection and eternal life.

To the family, we extend our heartfelt condolences. May the Lord comfort and strengthen you, and may the memories of Baba Wesley's faith, cheerfulness, and love for God sustain you. Rest peacefully, our beloved Baba, Father, Elder, Grandfather, and Friend.

The UMCA Theological Seminary Chapel, Ilorin, will miss you. We thank God for the privilege of having you among us and for the example you left behind.
Until we meet again at the feet of our Lord, farewell, dear Baba Wesley. You have completed your earthly assignment, and your memory will remain alive in our hearts.

Adieu, our beloved Father.
Rest in the peace of the Lord you loved and served.

REVD MESHACK SALAWU CHAPLAIN,
UMCA THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY CHAPEL, ILORIN

Adieu, Dear Amiable Friend. Mr. JIDE AIYEGBOKA.

Less than a week before your demise, I visited you on your hospital bed in Ela Hospital, near Niger Basin, Ilorin. The hospital is owned and run by a schoolmate and senior of mine in the sixties at the Provincial Secondary School turned Government Secondary School Dekina. On that sunny afternoon, you were joyful, lively and full of your usual rib-cracking, wisecracks. It was difficult, aside from being in bed, to believe you were truly in pain and awaiting a surgical procedure. After our usual jangle and banters, we parted on a note that I would come to see you on my return. And you bid me safe journey. " Olu, take care.

See you when you return' with another humorous remark. There was no death in your eyes, as we say in our part of the world, in literal translation.

Mr. Aiyegboka was a senior friend: a man of great humor, kind, gentle and incredibly humble. It took me weeks of death denial to accept that Jide had indeed gone to join his ancestors.

My wife was at pains passing on the sad information of your departure to me.
Cruel, shameless and unfeeling death has taken away a good man, respected and respectable.
You will be sorely missed by all those who knew you.
Your death hurts and deprives us of a man of honor and character.

Adieu, dear friend.

OLU OBAFEMI

Daddy,
I was shocked and short of words when I heard your departure. So, you have left us again without handling us to someone to take care. Daddy, your good deeds Will forever be in our hearts.
May you find favor in the presence of your creator. Good night may your gentle soul rest in perfect peace.

MRS. IBIYANMI C.A

GLOWING TRIBUTE TO A DEPENDABLE FRIEND

Jide (Akogó 1), as we, your close friends used to call you, when the news of your home call was broken to me, I thought I was dreaming because we still discussed on the Tuesday morning as the surgery was earlier fixed for Wednesday and we never thought that the surgery would be carried out later on that Tuesday.
I was about to call you that evening when I received the call announcing your death to me. Over that night, I wasn't myself again as I developed high fever which took me about ten days before I fully recovered.
Jide, I will not be doing your family and myself justice if I fail to write this tribute in view of our closeness dating back to almost six decades of friendship (1967-2026).
Among the friends I had ever moved closely with, you stood out as a true friend whom I can never forget in life as long as I still have breath in me.

Much as I would have loved to be very brief in my write-up, I can't do without making every reader of this Tribute to know the type of "true friend" you were made of in going to any length to save any friend you have studied and known his/her character in terms of honesty and accountability in the discharge of his/her official duties.

On this fateful day in December, 1979, I came to meet you in your office and told you that I had a problem with the then Kwara State Head of Service (HOS) in connection with the items I purchased for my office before proceeding to Kaduna Polytechnic on course, on the strength of the serious false allegation the officer who relieved me made against me that I didn't buy anything with the money given to me - whereas I bought all the items at the Kwara State Government owned Midland Stores at Ilorin with Local Purchase Order (LPO) that did not involve cash.
These items were duly taken on charge in Store Ledger and Store Receipt Voucher, which this officer duly signed for and took over from me before I proceeded on course.
Luckily enough, I put up with you when I came to Ilorin to purchase them and you knew everything about the items.
To this end, the then HOS who was the Permanent Secretary of Commerce that approved the Authority to Incur Expenditure (AIE) forgot that it wasn't CASH he approved for me, said that I should be recalled back from Kaduna to come and face a panel of inquiry to clear myself first.
The Kaduna Polytechnic did not even inform me concerning the recall letter which they ignored hence I didn't hear anything from home concerning the recall until I came home on Christmas holiday.

Two teams of Auditors were engaged to carry out the auditing -- Divisional Auditor's Office at Lokoja and the other from State Auditor General's Office at Ilorin. They both came out with the same verdict of "NO FRAUD WAS FOUND."
When I came to Ilorin to receive my Course Allowance, the HOS was still bent on recalling me back from the course. When I heard this, I had to come to you, Jide, to inform you about the development and you left your work immediately and asked me to follow you to the office of the HOS. On entering into his office, you went on your knees and I had to go on my knees as well. In the course of your telling him of our mission to his office, one of the former Permanent Secretaries of the Ministry of Commerce and Industry came in and met us on our knees, then cut in and asked the HOS, "Is it about me we were both kneeling?"

And the HOS said yes. He then said, "I think you know me that I will be the last person to ever condone indiscipline in the Civil Service, but I can categorically tell you that Johnson was one of the most hardworking and honest officers I worked with in the Ministry, and as such, I am pleading on his behalf that you please forgive him. The HOS had no alternative than to burst into laughter and said that "I was lucky to have two of the most respected Top Civil Servants pleading on my behalf, and as such, he has pardoned me.

All this while, you remained on your knees.
I CAN NEVER FORGET THE TYPE OF LOVE YOU
DEMONSTRATED FOR ME AS A TRUE FRIEND WHO COULD GO TO ANY LENGTH TO SAVE A TRUSTED FRIEND WHEN IN TROUBLE.
I then went back to complete my studies successfully.
GOD WILL REWARD YOUR CHILDREN BOUNTIFULLY WHEREVER THEY GO IN LIFE. THERE SHALL BE READY HELPERS FOR THEM AT ANY POINT OF THEIR NEEDS, IN THE GRACIOUS NAME OF JESUS AMEN.
Jide, as a result of your honesty and accountability, you almost lost your life at Kaduna when you went on official assignment to recover debts for your then employer - Bank of Industry, when you suffered a deadly spiritual attack, because you refused to compromise your Oath of Office when some debtors tried to lure you into agreeing to be bribed in order to write off their debts.
They pleaded that you should take some millions of naira thereby classifying their debts as "bad debts." Instead, you asked them to pay the moneys into the BOI's coffers as "part payments" of their debts.
You stood for "the truth" on any matter irrespective of whose ox was gored, because your "Motto in life was "FIDELITY UNTO DEATH. "
You knew the Truth and stuck to it tenaciously (John 8:32), definitely, the Lord Jesus Christ has received you into His bosom, where you will be rewarded with eternal rest.
My prayer is that, may your Children take after you in upholding the Truth, as you did, under any circumstance, and God Almighty shall continue to be their strength and Refuge all the days of their lives, in the peerless name of Jesus Christ.

May He grant the entire family and friends the fortitude to bear the great loss Amen.
Rest in Perfect Peace, Jide and tell Helen that we greatly miss you both. Adieu, the brave and truthful Couple!!!

CHIEF JOHNSON O ABIOYE

Tribute to Pa Wesley Olajide Ojo Aiyegboka

There are many seasons of life. In the words of the wisest and richest king that ever lived (King Solomon) Notable among those times and seasons are as clearly stated by the king himself below:

Ecclesiastes 3 New International Version

A Time for Everything

1. There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens:
2. A time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot,
3. A time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build,
4. A time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance,

We, the Ashaolu thank you for trusting our brother Joseph with one of the rarest and invaluable gifts of your daughter Bimbo in marriage. Thank you, Sir!
We thank God for the life you lived.
We thank God for times of triumph and times of lessons.
We thank God for every child He gave you the privilege to be their conduit to this world.
While we know that nothing is perfect on this side of eternity.
We know It will all be well in Heaven
Rest in the bosom of Jesus the merciful and kind.
The one who loves you with an everlasting love.

Thank you, Sir.

ASHAOLU FAMLY

My humble brother and my guardian, i did not know you will depart at this time but we all know death is a necessary end will come anytime, i thank God you gave your life to Jesus Christ before you were called to the glory may your gentle soul rest in peace. Amen.

Adieu Baba.

HON/ELDER AYENI P.S.O

Baba Jide, you left us when we didn't expect you to leave, Boda you came you fought and you conquer,
Rest on still the resurrection day.

IYA JIDE

I met Baba at a very old age, but to me Baba is a very generous and accommodating man, relating with all men in love regardless of social status. Though Baba died a bit old but the death of Baba is still to us a great loss.

Baba is a man with a heart of gold, respectful to everyone regardless of age. We love you Baba Aiyegboka but God loves you more, continue to rest in the bosom of your creator.

All of us from the United Missionary Church of Africa (UMCA) Iyara miss you. Sun re o Baba wa.

PASTOR METIBOBA AYOMIDE PATRICK.

Daddy, when we heard your death, it came to us as a rude shock, but God knows the best, then who are we to question him "the creator".

We will miss your gentility and your great contribution to the church.
Daddy, continue to rest in the perfect peace for the Lord.

VEN & MRS. ABIODUN, CATHEDRAL CHURCH OF ST PAUL, IYARA

Daddy,
We love you, but God loves you more may your soul rest in perfect peace
Our Amiable dad, we thank God for a fulfil life you lived among us

PASTOR MRS. OLADELE

Brother Jide,

the news of your departure from this world was sudden and disheartening. But who are we to question your creator who knows the beginning and the end of every mortal.an economist to the core and a lover of education has gone to rest with his creator you are always ready to assist your immediate and distance relations with love. You are always there for your family members.

He hated cheating with passion.
And he will go to any length to make sure he fights this cause.
Continue to sleep in the blossom of your creator.

MR. BADAKI SAMUEL SUNDAY

May his gentle soul rest in peace. May God give his family a fortitude to bear the irreparable loss.

BOLARIN OTITOJU EKINRIN-ADDE

Whatever had a beginning must have an end . Brother hide Ojo . This is the end, you have obeyed the call of your creator .

We shall meet at the blossom of the Lord where there no departure again in Jesus name amen.

TRIBUTE TO MY BELOVED BABA

My dearest Baba, It is with tears in my eyes and pain in my heart that I write this tribute to you, but I thank God for the privilege of being called your daughter and for the opportunity to serve you as your cook.
Baba, you were not just a father to me, you were a good father, a kind-hearted father, a father who loved me as his own child. In your house, I was never treated as a cook, you treated me as a daughter.
You were a loving and caring father. You always asked after my welfare, you prayed for me, you encouraged me, and you always appreciated everything I cooked for you, no matter how small.
Your kind words, "Ose omo mi" will forever ring in my ears.

You taught me humility, hard work, respect and the fear of God. You were a man of peace who accommodated everyone with love.

Baba, I will greatly miss your fatherly love, your smile, your jokes and your words of wisdom.
The kitchen will never remain the same without you tasting my food and blessing me.
Though you are gone, your love and kindness will remain in my heart forever. I take solace that you have gone to rest with our Lord Jesus Christ.

Thank you for loving me like your own daughter.
I will never forget you.
Rest on, my beloved Baba, till we meet to part no more.
Sun re o, Baba mi!
Your Loving Daughter,

TAIWO OLAYEMI

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE FROM IYARA DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION (IDA), ILORIN BRANCH

The Iyara Development Association (IDA), Ilorin Branch, extends its heartfelt condolences to the family of Pa Wesley Jide Ojo Aiyegboka on his glorious transition to eternity.

The passing of a beloved father and elder is a painful loss, not only to his immediate family but also to the entire Iyara community. We pray that Almighty God will comfort the bereaved family, grant them the strength to bear this irreparable loss, and preserve the good memories and legacy he leaves behind.

May the Almighty grant his family the fortitude to endure this difficult moment, and may his soul rest in perfect peace.
Our heartfelt condolences to the entire family.

IYARA DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION (IDA), ILORIN BRANCH

A FAREWELL TRIBUTE TO PA. WESLEY JIDE OJO AIYEGBOKA

As I reflect on the life of our brother Mr. Wesley Jide Ojo Aiyegboka, I am reminded of the profound impact he had on UMCATS Men's fellowship and UMCATS Chapel.

Pa Wesley Aiyegboka embodied values of devotion, hard work and commitment that we hold dear.
The UMCATS Men's Fellowship had the privilege of visiting him during his illness and was struck by his lively spirit despite his physical weakness.
When we prayed, after which he shook hands with all of us, not knowing that was the last time.
We give thanks to God for granting Mr. Wesley Aiyegboka 84 years of life; a testament to His faithfulness and goodness.

Throughout his life he demonstrated a remarkable commitment to the fellowship, Church and his loved ones. His dedication earned him recognition and respect in the fellowship and Church community; his gentle soul touched the lives of many.

His life was a testament to the power of love, dedication and service.
As we bid farewell to our beloved brother, we celebrate his life; his legacy; and memories he left behind. May his gentle soul rest in peace, and may his devotion and dedication inspire us to live lives that honor the Lord. We will miss him, but we will continue to cherish the memories of his life and his witness to us all.

The Lord will fill the vacuum left by his departure; and we will continue to thrive in the faith; inspired by his examples.
God knows best and to Him be all the glory. May God comfort the family and the Church.
Rest in peace! Papa, your memory will be a blessing to us all.

MR. A.S. ADEYEMI

TRIBUTE BY UMCA CHURCHES IN LOKOJA AT THE OCCASION OF THE BURIAL CEREMONIES OF LATE ELDER PA WESLEY OLAJIDE AIYEGBOKA AT IYARA- IJUMU, KOGI STATE.

In any genuine local church of god, god always prepare and position the likes of lydia, a seller of purple in the city of thyatira (acts 16:14) to help establish and facilitate his work.

Pa wesley olajide aiyegboka (pa aiyegboka) is one of such to the umca local assembly in iyara. Pa aiyegboka was a dedicated and committed member of united Missionary theological chapel (umtc), ilorin as far back as the early 70s.

He was one of several members of the ilorin assembly who so much cherished their mode of worship and therefore envisioned that, one day, umca assembly would be a reality in iyara and its environs.

After his retirement from the civil service of kwara state, anytime he visited his niece mrs baiyere and her husband at lokoja, he usually seized the opportunity to worship at our headquarters assembly in lokoja.
When he eventually learned that the UMCA Churches at lokoja were holding a crusade at iyara, which eventually led to the establishment of the church at iyara, he did not hesitate to identify with the church and became our major benefactor.

When he learned that we were looking for a strategic Parcel of land for the purpose of building the iyara sanctuary, he willingly donated a portion of his very strategic land at iyara to the church for that purpose without Collecting a dime.

At this juncture, let me say that pa aiyegboka was a very quiet, intelligent, unassuming, soft spoken but no doubt, a no nonsense fellow.
As a development economic planner at Ministry of finance and economic development, ilorin, he was a force to reckon with.
Whenever a major important decision had to be taken in his area of purview, his opinion was usually taken as given.
In the local parlance at iyara in his hay days, our people usually say " wa kawe titi aka to jide a" this is to say that you can't surpass baba jide in studying despite his commitment to farmworks.

This was because of the hefty economic Textbooks he was always carrying along and studying and still had time to help his Parents in farm works.

When he was visited by some of us during the burial of late engr osatogbe (oyinbo iyara) his relation, he was in very high spirit and escorted us to his gate.
It's an understatement to say that pa aiyegboka, the god-sent lover and helper of our UMCA assembly in iyara will be greatly missed.

To the immediate and extended family members left behind, umca assemblies home and Abroad, we say " eku suru esi tun ku ara fera ku." all we need to do now is to hold forth the glorious legacies of baba.

Let's also be comforted that our baba has only gone ahead of us to rest and that we shall surely meet again on the resurrection morning when we shall part no More.

May the good lord, the great comforter, comfort us all, grant us the fortitude to bear the great loss and also fill the great vacuum created in jesus blessed name.

FOREVER IN OUR Heart
